Edward Gledhill was born 31st July, 1811
At Compton, Yorkshire, England. His wife Betty Hague Gledhill was born 8th July 1814 At Shaw, Lancashire, England. Near Compton.

Edward Gledhill was a member of the Methodist Church. His wife leaned to the Prespiterian Church. They were geting on very cangentially till the early part of the year 1849, when his wife had a dream, or vision, of two men coming to their home who claimed to have the true gospel and warning her to give heed to what they had to say to her. Some time in June, two men called at their door when she was alone, she recognized them as the two men she saw in her dream.
They were made welcome and they mare regular visits at the Gledhill home. She became converted to the principles of the gospel as taught by them and was baptized on the 3rd
